5.  LIAISON Richard Abrams, on the staff of Representative Harold Ford (D., Tenn.), called to request information on U.S. exports to the Soviet Union and petroleum refinement and extraction equipment. After conferring with  OCI, I advised Abrams that we would be unable to provide him with information on U.S. exports and I suggested that he contact the Commerce Department. Abrams said he thought that this would be the case but said he was having an extremely difficult time in getting any information on this subject and then requested information on Soviet production of petroleum refining and extraction equipment. I said I would have to check and get back to him.

7.  LIAISON I called Marianne Spiegel, in the office of Senator Dick Clark (D., Iowa), and obtained Senator Clark's itinerary which I passed on to  SA/DO/O, for preparation of a cable to the field. Senator Clark does not now contemplate contacting stations en route but may change his mind and the cable will so alert the stations.

5. [REDACTED] LIAISON I returned the call of Elaine Christofferson, in the Reno office of Senator Paul Laxalt (R., Nevada). She said that [REDACTED] was still bugging the Reno office and asked if we could call him and talk to him to see if we can get him off their back. She thought that all he needed was direct contact and that would satisfy him; since he feels he is getting no hearing from anybody. His home phone number [REDACTED]

25X1

1. [REDACTED] BRIEFING Richard Gibney, in the office of Representative Stephen J. Solarz (D., N. Y.), called requesting a briefing for the Representative, to prepare him for a trip he plans to

[REDACTED] trip is to examine the possibilities for peace in the Middle East and what role the new Administration might play. The week of 6 December 1976 was set as a time for the briefing. [REDACTED] OCI, has been advised.

3. [REDACTED] LIAISON Took a call from John Holstine, on the staff of the House International Relations Committee, who asked if we could find out about a Cambodian friend [REDACTED] then returned to Cambodia. Holstine said he thought he lived in Phnom Penh. He also asked if we had any information about the strange signal emanating from the Soviet Union that is apparently interfering with radio communications. I told Holstine I would check on these two requests and get back to him.

OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

Monday - 22 November 1976

1. [REDACTED] LIAISON Linda, in the office of Representative Larry Winn (R., Kan.), called and requested two publications: "Potential Implications of Trends in World Population, Food Production, and Climate" and "A Study of Climatological Research as it Pertains to Intelligence Problems." Copies were sent to her.

2. [REDACTED] LIAISON Talked to Jane Kinney, on the staff of Representative Paul Rogers (D., Fla.), and outlined to her the thrust of the letter we planned to send to the Congressman in response to his inquiry on behalf of [REDACTED] She said she would brief the Congressman on the draft and requested copies of Mr. Cary's letter on the same subject of 7 August 1975, and also a copy of [REDACTED] letter to the Congressman. I told her I would send them to her first thing in the morning.

3. [REDACTED] LIAISON Rick Feeney, Executive Assistant, House Select Committee on Assassinations, called and said that Wednesday afternoon, 24 November, at 2:00 p.m. would be a good time for a rescheduling of the meeting with Richard Sprague, Acting Director.

4. [REDACTED] FAA Jack Brady, Chief of Staff, House International Relations Committee, called and will be meeting with Chairman Thomas Morgan (D., Pa.) on Wednesday concerning the Presidential finding I called him about last week. I told him [REDACTED] would be by his office today to give him further details which Brady should have for the Chairman.

25X1

5. [REDACTED] LIAISON Pete Stathis, GAO, called on the progress of the Agency review of the GAO report concerning the Federal narcotics effort [REDACTED] he had dropped off with us a couple of weeks ago. After checking with [REDACTED] I informed Stathis that some of the information in the report requires classification or deletion and it was agreed we would try our hand at rewording to resolve this problem.

25X1

6. [REDACTED] FAA BRIEFING Accompanied the Director to a briefing of the Special Subcommittee on Intelligence, House Armed Services Committee, on the 16 November Presidential finding. (See [REDACTED] Memorandum for the Record.)

OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

Monday - 22 November 1976

1. [REDACTED] ADMINISTRATIVE - DELIVERIES
I delivered personal letters from the Director to the offices of Senators Henry Bellmon (R., Okla.) and Adlai E. Stevenson (D., Ill.).
2. [REDACTED] BRIEFING I briefed Clark McFadden, Senate Armed Services Committee staff, on the latest Presidential finding. His only comment was that the briefing of the full Committee might illicit questions as to how this equipment might be used in ways not intended, particularly with respect to the repression of human rights.
3. [REDACTED] BRIEFING I briefed Jack Brady, Chief of Staff, House International Relations Committee, on the latest Presidential finding.
4. [REDACTED] BRIEFING I briefed Ralph Preston and Charles Snodgrass, both on the House Committee on Appropriations staff, on the latest Presidential finding. (See Memo for the Record.)
